Dear Mr. Foster:

I am writing to enclose your letter as I know you would not want anything to happen to it. I had planned to bring it to you, but the weather has gotten bad so I thought I had better mail it in order to be on the safe side. I certainly wish you luck in your efforts to get what you want at the race track.

I would appreciate it very much if you will send me the boys name and address so I can write him directly. The time is drawing near now when I have to get my plans for the comming season outlined so I will know what I have to plan with. I will come see you soon. I am planning to go to Camden on some business within the next day or two, but I will look you up on my return.

Very Truly Yours
